Nothing gets us more excited for Halloween than a haunted house, and this year, you can start the spooky festivities a little bit early.

The 14th annual Signature Grand Ghou celebration kicks off Oct. 26 from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m.

The Signature Grand in Davie will be transformed into a haunted mansion for the event, which benefits 2-1-1 Broward, a 24-hour helpline for residents seeking crisis intervention assistance or other services.

Emceed by former Miami Dolphins players O.J. McDuffie and Joe Rose, the party will feature music, a costume contest, a silent auction and celebrity guests including NFL alumni and local celebrities.

Tickets total $100 per person or $150 for two. However, members are granted the special price of $75 per ticket. Entry includes an open bar, a gourmet buffet and endless dancing.
