

Society Scene

October 13, 2016

Halloween spooktacular benefits 2-1-1 Broward

Get ready for a night of chills and thrills as Signature Grand is transformed into a 100,000-square-foot haunted mansion.

The 15th annual "Grand Ghoul" will take place Oct. 24 at 7 p.m.

Former Miami Dolphin O.J. McDuffie will emcee the adult Halloween party. During the spooktacular evening, partygoers in Halloween costumes will dance the night away. There will be a costume contest where judges will select guests throughout the evening based on creativity, fear factor and originality. Finalists will then be brought up on stage for an overall crowd vote.

Guests will also have the chance to mix and mingle with NFL alumni, local celebrities and other South Florida notables. The evening will also include an open bar, buffet dinner with themed food stations and silent auction items. VIP guests will have access to special treats, drinks and hair-raising surprises. "Grand Ghoul" will benefit 2-1-1 Broward. The 24-hour comprehensive helpline and support services organization is available to individuals and families in the community who seek crisis intervention assistance.

Tickets are $100 per person or $150 for two tickets. Active CLUB 2-1-1 member tickets. VIP tickets are $125.

To register or for more information, visit www.211-broward.org.

SUBMITTED PHOTOS

Tracy Schuldiner, left, DeAnna McCutcheon and Sheila Smith

Ashley Boyd, left, Tamara Chase and Courtney Zulinke