Grand Ghoul's Spook-tacular Evening

More than 600 notables attended the 14th Annual Signature Grand Ghoul benefitting 2-1-1 Broward last month emceed by former Miami Dolphins wide receiver O.J. McDuffie and former Miami Dolphins tight end and WQAM radio host, Joe Rose. The Signature Grand was transformed into a 100,000-square-foot haunted mansion to welcome guests in freakishly fabulous costumes. Guests gathered for the night of thrilling tunes, a grand gourmet buffet, chilling cocktails and helped raise almost $50,000 for 2-1-1 Broward. Broward County's 2-1-1 hotline connects residents with trained crisis specialists and counselors who assess the caller's situation and provide them available community resources. ■
